THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

DANCE AND TEA PARTIES FOR THE YOUNGER SET.

Corcoran Gallery Tonight - Another

Tonight the exhibition by local artists at the Corcoran Gallery will generally interest both the social and art circles the capital. The reception opens at 8:30. Senator Depew will formally present a bust of Gen. Grant to the gallery. The donor is Mr. Seligman of New York. Mrs. Janin was hostess last night at one of the most delightful gatherings of resident society which has marked the spring season. The Blair home, on Lafayette square, was fragrant with woodland blossoms and roses. While the resident fami-lies were largely represented, so were both diplomatic and official society, especially by its younger members.

Mrs. J. Eakin Gadsby entertained a large company of young people yesterday afternoon, in honor of Miss Casey Wright, daughter of Gen. Marcus I. Wright and one of the most charming of the debutantes this spring. Lilaes and white blossoms and many beautiful roses added new attractions to the lovely home of the hostess. The porches were inclosed with canvas and gaily decked with branches of dogwood. Mrs. Gadsby, handsomely gowned in black grenadine and jet, was assisted by Mrs. Wright, Mrs. George Laws, Miss Wright, Miss Pierce, Miss Simms of Tennessee, Miss Agnes Peter. Miss Smoot, Miss Greenlees, Miss Sophia Stuart, Miss Adler, Miss Marshall, Miss Joyce, Miss Campbell and Miss Gadsby. Miss Wright wore a most becoming gown of pink organdie.

Secretary and Mrs. Hitchcock entertained at dinner last night to meet Mr. Lewis Morris Iddings, first secretary of the American embassy at Rome, and Mrs. Iddings. The other guests were Colonel and Mrs. Bingham, Colonel and Mrs. Bingham, Colonel and Mrs. Sharp, Miss Hitchcock, Mr. Strale of the Swiss legation, Mr. Childs of Pittsburg and Mr. McPherson. Mr. de Wollant, first secretary of the Russian embassy, and Mrs. de Wollant gave a dinner last night, when the company included the assistant secretary of state and Mrs. Hill, the Spanish minister and Duchess d'Arcos, the Belgian minister and Countess Lichtervelde and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henderson.

Mrs. J. J. Lightfoot, the Misses Lightfoot and Mrs. Renaud will be at home Wednes-day, May 9, at Terrace Heights, West Washington. Mrs. Charlotte M. Halleck has returned from the west and is now at Colonel Knif-fin's, Takoma Park. An informal reception took place Sunday, April 29, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bartholme, 1329 F street northeast. There were numerous friends present to extend best wishes and congratulations, it being Mr. Bartholme's sixtieth birthday. The room was decorated with palms and flowers. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sour. Henry Sour and family, Mrs. Mahoney and family, Mrs. and Mrs. Hartic, Mrs. Kelly and family, Mrs. Smidth, Misses Julia Hagan, Mamie Clements, Frances Bartholme, Anna Bartholme, Lizzie Bartholme, Ella Bartholme, and Messrs. Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McKee, Col. and Mrs. Henry May and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis gave dinners last night. One of the most important of the late One of the most important of the late June weddings in New York will be that of Miss Katherine S. Clark, daughter of Senator Clark, to Dr. Lewis Rutherford Morris. As previously stated in this column, the date selected is June 18, and Mrs. Everett M. Culver will be the matron of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mai Ffouts of Butte, Montana, and Miss Christine Pomeroy, a niece of the bridegroom. Dr. Morris' best man will be Mr. William M. Harriman, and his ushers Dr. Charles Thorndyke Parker, who was recently married to Miss Susan De Forest Day; Dr. Everett M. Culver and Messrs. Wirt Howe, Newbold Morris, F. S. Young and W. A. Clark, jr. Bishop Tuttle of Missouri will officiate, assisted by Rev. Dr. John Wesley Brown. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at Senator Clark's home. The bride-elect, who has been suffering from a tedious attack of grip, is now convalescing.

Mrs. L. Stern has discontinued her days at home for the season. Mrs. Fred. Levi of Sumter, S. C., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Cohen, at 1715 N street, where she will be pleased to see her friends on Wednes-days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hughes of Capitol Mr. and Mrs. B. Hugnes of Capiton Hill started today on their annual drive through Maryland, Pennsylvania and New York. DEATH FROM SMALLPOX.

Arthur Browning First Victim Since the Outbreak Here.

Arthur Browning died of smallpox at the hespital this morning, after an filness of about a week. Browning, who was employed at the navy yard, resided at 1916 12th street southeast, and was removed to the hospital the 27th of last month. The unfortunate man will be buried in the Congressional cemetery this afternoon. This is the first death from the disease during the the first death from the disease during the present outbreak here, the first case of which was discovered last fall. The other patients at the hospital are reported to be progressing toward recovery.

The seventy-third anniversary of the City Bible Society will be in the interests of the American Bible Society, and the meeting will be held Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, on 41/2 street. Rev. Dr. Fox of New York, one of the speakers at the missionary conference, will make the address. Mr. Justice Brewer and Mr. J. W. Foster will be present and take part.
Dr. Pitzer, who has just been for the twenty-seventh time unanimously ejected president, will preside. President Mc-Kinley has been invited to attend.

Confessed to Charge of Theft.

John Jost today in the Police Court admitted to Judge Kimball that he was guilty of the larceny of two iron bars valued at $1.50 each from the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Rallroad Company. He was fined $10, and, failing to pay, he was committed to jail for thirty days.
